Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

DCI/ICS 83-3892
7 November 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Director, Intelligence Community Staff

9 NOV 1983

FROM: Eloise R. Page
Chairman

SUBJECT: Study of Soviet Strategic Cruise Missiles: An Intelligence Challenge

25X1

1. The attached Critical Intelligence Problems Committee (CIPC) study was developed in response to DDCI tasking.

25X1

2. The objective of this study was to document for DCI consideration and approval a comprehensive all-source intelligence strategy, with alternatives, resource implications and appropriate recommendations, that is responsive to requirements for information concerning Soviet strategic cruise missile developments.

25X1

3. The CIPC principals have reviewed and discussed the study and its recommendations. They have enthusiastically approved its conclusions and recommendations and have already implemented some of the recommendations that fall within their respective areas of responsibility.

25X1

4. It is therefore recommended that you approve the study for NFIC consideration at an early date.

25X1

5. Additionally, the committee concluded that this particular study made a very technical subject intelligible to the non-specialist and recommended that it be sanitized for broad distribution. In view of this committee recommendation, we are presently developing _____ version of the study for distribution subsequent to your approval of the basic study.
